

Reverend Major Morrison

Reverend Major Morrison

The son of parents Marian and Major Morrison Jr. brothers Dennis, Clarence, sisters Carolyn, Rosemarie, Marian, Mary Ebby Morrison. Major has attended Grammar School in New York City and graduated he later went on to Merger Evers College studying liberal arts, Also New York City Community College Course of Study Mechanical Engineering. Rev. Morrison has one Son Justin Jerrell Morrison

Later he joined the United States Navy Merchant Marines Military Sealift Command and rose to the title of watch engineer during 1979 until 1998. He served one tour of Duty in Operation Desert Storm and Desert Shield In 1991 - 1993 and has received, Congressional Record the 112 Session of Congress House of Representatives.

After serving his country he is presently working at the Veterans Medical Center in New York City where he is a Systems Operating Boiler plant Engineer at present.

Upon his return to continue his education he has presently attended Somerset Christian College and our Lord and Savior has called him to study and write for His name and glory.

Rev. Morrison courses of studies are narrative bible theology creative leadership, and church organizational management with ministerial training. Upon completion he will receive his Bachelors of Arts Degree in Biblical Studies.

He later went onward to finish his education by attending and entering the Master of Divinity Program at the Unification Theological Seminary Located in Barrytown Up State New York, Rev. Morrison Transcript will state the Master Program but earned Master of Arts in Religious Studies with a Concentration of Non- Profit Leadership.

For the prime reason to Teach , while earning this Degree he also applied and has taken advance courses during his Masters Program towards his Doctor of Philosophy in Biblical Studies and has his Broad Certification in Biblical Preaching from Atlantic Coast Theological Seminary.

Accreditation from the State of Florida Department of Education

Rev. Morrison has served on a number of community broad from New York to Plainfield New Jersey Clergy Association as well as Chaplain at the Eastern Star Assisting Living in Manville New Jersey also he is a member of the International Chaplain Association of Home land Security

He has earned countless awards and was honored in The Heritage Registry of Who's Who Executives and Professional 2015 -2016 along with Pastor Dr. A.R. Bernard of Christian Life Center in Brooklyn New ,York .